Internal Complaint Committee (ICC)

The Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) is a statutory body constituted under the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013. It serves as a crucial mechanism to address complaints related to sexual harassment, ensuring a safe, respectful, and inclusive environment for all women on campus. The ICC plays a vital role in creating awareness, preventing harassment, and resolving grievances in a fair and confidential manner. By promoting gender sensitivity and equality, the committee helps build a campus culture based on trust, dignity, and mutual respect.
